

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF OREGON

In the Matter of Limiting the Operation of Wireless Communication Devices

General Order No: 06-9091

in District of Oregon Courthouses

Except as authorized by a judge, wireless communication devices¹ will be turned off while in a courtroom. They may be turned on when not in a courtroom, however, the device shall not record, receive, or transmit video images, pictures, signals, or movies at any time when inside the courthouse.

Violation of this general order may result in the device being confiscated by United States Marshal's Office personnel and the violator referred to the court for contempt or other sanction proceedings.

Done on behalf of the Court on April 10, 2006.

Honorable Ancer L. Haggerty
Chief Judge

¹ For purposes of this rule, wireless communication devices include (but are not limited to) mobile phones, laptop computers, iPods or MP3 players, and personal digital assistants (PDAs).
